Service code 520

Le Blanc Consulting is enrolling new clients for the Independent Living Skills Program. Clients will be provided a well-rounded curriculum of activities to meet their individual needs in assisting them in becoming more independent.

Purpose and Goals of Services

This Program is specifically geared to assist consumers on one to one bases in their homes and within their local community such as grocery shopping, banking, Laundromat, library, doctor's office and much more. Through empowering them to make positive decisions, clients become self-aware and gain the ability to demonstrate self-control.

Independent Living Program Concept

We at LeBlanc Consulting teach that success in Independent living is gained by the work the clients invest to becoming empowered to make healthy choices within their community. We encourage a client to embrace the roles that they identify with within their community as a leader, teacher, parent, partner, sibling and friend. Our comprehensive independent living skills program will teach or provide one to one assistance to consumers under three phases (The initial phase, transition phase, & the implementation phase).
