Le Blanc Consulting

Le Blanc Consulting© is a small organization founded by people with love ones that are living with developmental delays. We are a referral based organization for, both English and Spanish Speaking individuals, parents, care providers and legal guardians with children ages 0 to 25, dedicated to nurturing future leaders.

Though the passion for helping to educate others, LeBlanc Consulting encourages, support, education, leadership, community involvement, individual development and family systems development. By applying counseling approaches and techniques, such as solution focus, reality focus, and cognitive behavioral therapy we unearth long-standing behavior patterns or negative perceptions that may be holding one back from fulfilling his/her parenting role and leading a meaningful and life.

We provide family behavioral assessments and modification techniques. We provide support for court appearances for clients with open Child Protective Service (CPS) cases. We do our best to assist with the family reunification process. We provide communication coaching, wrap around support and encouragement to all of our clients and his or her support network with the goal of becoming more independent parents through the utilization of community resources.

We do our best to assist in building the bridges that connect our client and surrounding environment. As a result, we assist in creating the village needed to raise a healthy and balanced child.

By uniting efforts, Le Blanc Consulting, Inc. has built a strong, referral based, cohesive, and productive organization that positively impacts the lives of children, families and communities. Le Blanc Consulting, Inc. success is based on the depth of commitment, and confidence of its Learners and Community Partners. We go above and beyond for all clients and provide presentations to our partner agencies about our services to assure wrap around support for clients. Contact us for more information.

Qualified Parenting Instructors provide one to one parent training to consumers. Parenting classes (Mommy and Me) and support group (Parent to Parent) meetings allows parents to get peer support and learn in a non-judgmental environment. Family enrichment activities provide an outlet for parents to build positive relationships with their children through fun and play.

Le Blanc Consulting

"Together we provide the village of support needed to raise healthy & balanced children".~ Le Blanc

Le Blanc Consulting, Inc. serves everyone including both English and Spanish Speaking parents with an emphasis on individuals with children. We work with the whole person and their immediate family members to assure stability and behavioral functioning within the family unit.

We teach that Parenting is the work invested by each parent to rear a child. A parent must learn to en-compasses the role of homemaker, caregiver, teacher, disciplinarian, nurse and friend. Fulfilling all these roles can be a challenge for any parent, and it often cannot be achieved alone.
